Governor Demands a Full Explanation of the Victim of Army Of-District-Attorney's Attitude on the McAuliffe Case-May Take the Investigation from His Control.

(Special to The Evening World.

ALBANY, April 14.—Gov. Odell to-day said:

"I have requested District-Attorney Jerome to come here on Thursday next and inform me about his plans to bring to justice the suspected murderers of James McAuliffe.

"I must learn whether the State's interference is necessary in this case before appointing a Deputy Attorney-General to conduct the prosecution and take it out of the hands of District-Attorney of the Twenty-sixth Volunteer In-
